Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Your letter of January 20, 1976 asked for comment on your using articles written by you that have appeared in earlier editions of The Loyalist Gazette and now are to be printed in book form by yourself.

This letter is to inform you that we of The Loyalist Gazette are pleased to learn of this good news and that there is no legal concern whatever for you with regard to copyright or any related matter.

We should be pleased if you would care to mention The Loyalist Gazette in your Foreward or Introduction to the book but that is not necessary.

We wish you the very best in preserving these stories and articles in permanent print.

Yours loyally,

E. J. Chard
Editor, The Loyalist Gazette

1. The first of the year was a very cold day, with a heavy snowfall. The wind was from the north, and the snow lay deep on the ground. The trees were covered with a thick layer of snow, and the houses were also covered. The children were very happy to play in the snow, and they built a large snowman in the front yard. The snowman was made of three snowballs, and it had a long stick for a nose and two sticks for arms. The children were very proud of their snowman, and they named it "Snowy".

2. The second day was a very warm day, with a heavy rain. The rain fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the rain, and they built a large mudcastle in the front yard. The mudcastle was made of mud, and it had a high wall and a small tower. The children were very proud of their mudcastle, and they named it "Mudman".

3. The third day was a very cold day, with a heavy snowfall. The snow fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the snow, and they built a large snowman in the front yard. The snowman was made of three snowballs, and it had a long stick for a nose and two sticks for arms. The children were very proud of their snowman, and they named it "Snowy".

4. The fourth day was a very warm day, with a heavy rain. The rain fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the rain, and they built a large mudcastle in the front yard. The mudcastle was made of mud, and it had a high wall and a small tower. The children were very proud of their mudcastle, and they named it "Mudman".

5. The fifth day was a very cold day, with a heavy snowfall. The snow fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the snow, and they built a large snowman in the front yard. The snowman was made of three snowballs, and it had a long stick for a nose and two sticks for arms. The children were very proud of their snowman, and they named it "Snowy".

6. The sixth day was a very warm day, with a heavy rain. The rain fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the rain, and they built a large mudcastle in the front yard. The mudcastle was made of mud, and it had a high wall and a small tower. The children were very proud of their mudcastle, and they named it "Mudman".

7. The seventh day was a very cold day, with a heavy snowfall. The snow fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the snow, and they built a large snowman in the front yard. The snowman was made of three snowballs, and it had a long stick for a nose and two sticks for arms. The children were very proud of their snowman, and they named it "Snowy".

8. The eighth day was a very warm day, with a heavy rain. The rain fell all day long, and the ground was very wet. The children were very happy to play in the rain, and they built a large mudcastle in the front yard. The mudcastle was made of mud, and it had a high wall and a small tower. The children were very proud of their mudcastle, and they named it "Mudman".

9. The ninth day was a very cold day, with a heavy snowfall. The snow fell all day long, and the ground was very wet.
